Chicago, May 4. Jack Taylor handed the game to-day to Selec's men. His three-base error off Single's little hunt and a wild patch did it in the seventh inning. The score was 3 to 1 at the finish, but Weimer drew it so close that a base hit would have used for St. Louis in the ninth.

St. Louis made a wrong bid for the game in its half of the sixth, when a hit, a pass and two steals put runners at third.

It is a purely vegetable remedy, and while it penetrates the circulation and forces out all poison and morbid matter, it also builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. lively air and the audience hesitated for a moment. In that short space of time they learned that the church building was in no danger and a serious panic was averted.

As it was, many persons were slightly injured in the crush. Several men retained sufficient presence of mind to lift the children above the crowd or there probably would have been some fatalities before order was restored.

The flames from the planing mill, which belonged to Karcher & Scanland, spread to the Shewmestown ice Company's plant and to the residence of George W. Hubbard, destroying both buildings. The total loss will aggregate $2,000 with $5.500 insurance.

surance. It is believed that the fire caught in the hay in the planing mill from sparks from the engine at the ice plant.
